

Fall Break 2008 at the Dinah Zike Academy: A Special Training Session Designed Just for Homeschooling Parent Educators

WHAT: A Hands-On Immersion Experience in Foldables®, Lapbooks™ & VKVs™ to teach both basics and higher-level thinking skills and to integrate reading and writing, math and science, social studies, and literature. Classical learners, text bookers, and unit studiers alike will find the Foldable® tools and projects easy to make and powerful tools for learning. You'll see and make oodles of examples.

WHEN: Thursday Evening – Saturday Afternoon, September 18-20, 2008

WHERE: An Incredible Spot—The Dinah Zike Academy in picturesque Comfort, Texas, an historic village in the beautiful Texas Hill Country (40 min. from San Antonio, 90 min. from Austin)

WHO: Led by Known Names in Homeschooling: Susan Simpson – Common Sense Press, Tammy Duby - Tobin's Lab, Chris Paulsen-Consultant in AZ, and internationally known Foldables® inventor DINAH ZIKE herself!

Here's what's in store in this high energy, high production session:

Thurs. Evening - A Big Texas & Comfort Welcome to Participants-- A Family
9/18/08 Event-- Cookout/Welcome Reception for participant parents & any accompanying family. Tour the Academy – sit in an Asian schoolmaster's chair, hold a petrified dinosaur egg, try on an African headdress or mask and more!

Fri. Immersion - From "What are the basic folds and how do I choose a fold for 9/19/08 different learning purposes?" to "How can I better make learning 'stick,' and be authentic?" Foldables® and Lapbooks™ are exciting ways to put responsibility for learning on your students as they gain ownership and find creative outlets for communication.
